

Energize Your K–8 Staff Meetings, Study Groups, and Professional Learning Communities

New
DVDs from CHOICE LITERACY

Are you looking for realistic, high-quality portraits of teachers and students at work? We provide honest glimpses of real classrooms, all in brief vignettes you can mix and match to suit your needs.

Our videos are filmed by professional crews, and workshop guides include detailed templates, discussion prompts, and student writing samples.

The Literacy Principal in Action

Supporting Learners of All Ages

Karen Szymusiak

$159 • 80 Minute DVD

Karen Szymusiak, co-author of Day-to-Day Assessment in the Reading Workshop, takes viewers through the routines and strategies she uses as a principal to promote thoughtful, focused discussion of literacy learners. Formats include case studies, literacy “chats,” grade-level and leadership team meetings, and mixed-age student groups.

Mentor Texts

Models for Reading Strategies & Writer’s Craft

Aimee Buckner

$159 • 90 Minute DVD

Aimee Buckner, author of Notebook Know-How, shows how mentor texts are the anchor for her 4th grade students in reading and writing workshops. Through demonstration lessons, modeling, targeted small groups, and individual conferences, core concepts and strategies are taught and discussed.

Two Workshops

Contrasting Primary and Intermediate Literacy Programs

Katie DiCesare and Karen Terlecky

$159 • 110 Minute DVD

Have you ever wished for a video that shows a reading and writing workshop from start to finish in a classroom? Katie DiCesare is a first-grade teacher, and Karen Terlecky works with 5th graders. Two Workshops shows how similar structures and routines for read-aloud, conferring, small groups, and minilessons look and feel at the primary and intermediate levels. Presented nearly in real time, this DVD can be used to compare and contrast workshops across grade levels for new teacher mentoring sessions, whole staff professional development, or individual coaching sessions with colleagues.

Simply Beautiful

Middle School Edition

Gail Boushey and Joan Moser (“The Sisters”)

$99 • 45 Minute DVD

The Sisters visit a middle school, where they collaborate with a librarian, principal, and team of students to transform a middle school library into a more warm, inviting, and teen-friendly environment. They also work with 7th grade teacher Erinn to declutter her classroom and create more literacy-rich spaces for her students in the second half of the program.

K–6 Word Study Sampler

(Available September 30, 2008)

$159 • 80 Minute DVD

This DVD includes excerpts from Choice Literacy DVDs and the Choice Literacy website all focused on word learning strategies—from conferring with kindergartners who are just learning the concept of spacing words, to sixth graders who are adept at word sorting and analysis activities. Wall displays, materials, and conferring protocols are also highlighted.
